

Craig Paulsen

Sports and Musculoskeletal Physiotherapist

Craig has a background working in nationally recognised large Orthopaedic and Sports Medicine Clinics. Craig brings his wealth of experience over the last 14 years to help Green Point Medical clients. Craig enjoys working with clients of all ages and physical activity levels to help each client move better and be pain free. He enjoys treating all musculoskeletal conditions with clinical sub interest areas in the management of shoulder, knee conditions and spinal pain.

Areas Of treatment include: Spinal pain, post operative orthopaedics, shoulder, elbow, hip, knee, ankle and foot pain. Conditions including headaches, osteoarthritis, tendinopathy and chronic pain, corrective exercise and rehabilitation and gym based rehabilitation.

Accepting referrals for private patients, Medicare chronic disease management CDM (formerly known as EPC), workers compensation, compulsory third party, department of veterans affairs and self managed clients under NDIS.